

The Daylitter Shading System

This unique new product features operable fabric lightshelves with integral roller shades designed to significantly expand interior daylight zones. The rotatable lightshelves deliver glare-free daylight onto the ceiling while blocking direct solar heat gain.

From a single lightshelf to a stack of lightshelves, operated manually or automated, these systems are infinitely configurable to suit both the functional needs of a given space as well as the aesthetic goals of the designer.

www.indoor-sky.com

